Member Benefits Overview

Professional Development

Our members have the opportunity to get involved in service and leadership development projects to build their skills. Resources like our monthly e-newsletters and web information services will keep you up to date on current issues, informed on technical changes and in touch with developments in the profession. As we continue to grow, we offer many ways for members to get involved at the committee level, in an organizational governance role and as an expert speaker, just to name a few. Our most active members develop their skills, and their contacts, through membership.

Advocacy

When members speak with a strong, unified voice, people listen. The Society represents you before the DC City Council, the mayor's office, DC Office of Tax and Revenue, our congressional delegation, the federal government and the DC Board of Accountancy. We work collaboratively with other state CPA societies to strengthen the profession nationally and internationally.

Continuing Professional Education (CPE)

Members can receive over 20 hours of CPE for free by attending Section meetings and various other offerings through the GWSCPA as part of their membership.

Networking

Networking opportunities abound at regular society and committee meetings, CPE seminars, workshops, world class conferences and social activities. The Greater Washington Society has an outstanding reputation and holds numerous well attended events annually that put you in contact with the people you need to know. Through our Member Directory, you can stay in touch with old friends and develop new contacts.

Employment Resources

Our website features the ability to post job opportunities and search resumes exclusively for GWSCPA Members. We additionally work to connect members with organizations seeking board members and audit committee members.

Discount and Partner Programs

Members get great prices on live CPE seminars, webcasts, conferences, In-house CPE and more. Our Member discount for most of the educational programs is typically at about 30% off non-member prices. As a GWSCPA Member, you will also enjoy member discounts with MACPA and VSCPA programs as well. In addition to CPE courses, our members receive discounts with the following partners: Partnership, Becker CPA Exam review, Yaeger CPA Exam Review, LTC Global, Camico Professional Liability Insurance, iTransact, LTC Global and more.

Visibility

The Society offers “Find A CPA”, our online referral free to all member firms in good standing. We can put potential clients directly in contact with you through this service, which highlights your firm’s services.

Reputation and Location

Being in the nation’s capital puts us in a unique position to not only obtain some of the most influential speakers in this country, but also allows our members to provide direct input to the IRS, FASAB, and others as well as close ties to the AICPA’s DC Office. Our members are proud to tell their clients of their membership in to an organization dedicated to integrity and professional excellence.
